I love people. Down to earth despite many decades of experience with high-end clients.

I am used to working with the rich and famous, but I am down to earth

My first job was operating the Heidelberg press and setting type by hand behind the Aspen Times when I was 10. I began making money selling advertising art at age 14. I read your ad until the last line. Did you read mine? Let's pour gas on this fire!

I have a loft in South End Boston where I produce my physical and digital art and music.

I am a published author (Amazon), blogger, lifestyle consultant, and former cooking show host.

I am a gay father with an amazing wife, two teenagers and two dogs.

Boston is city number twelve for me. I would like to see my kids continue their education here.
